

A PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS...

Faith is a fabric... Our experience at Second Presbyterian Church is more vibrant due to the rich textiles we see and feel. Christian symbols presented in an array of texture and color remind us that our Lord is near -- perhaps close enough to touch the hem of His garment. **

Quilted fabrics offer warmth, and often tell us stories. Tapestries join individual strands into sweeping images. Each piece of fabric or strand of thread transforms into something greater...

What does the fabric of your faith look and feel like?
What strands of inspiration are woven into your life?
Do you have a story to share?

Second Thoughts is an anthology of answers to those questions from people like you...

As the peace and joy of summer enfolds you, consider what God has written on your heart. We are not looking for authors, just those with the courage to weave the fabric of faith at Second Church.

Volume One of Second Thoughts was published in November 2021, and printed copies are available in McFarland Hall and near the church entrances. A link to the publication is also provided here to inspire you at SecondChurch.org/finearts.

Never fear! The editor is not your old English teacher. Let us help you tell your story!
